FTO classroom training course development outline Community Policing 4 hour course Gerleman

Why do the police need public support

- 1. Effective crime prevention and detection
- 2. Maintaining law and order
- 3. Enhancing public safety
- 4. Building trust and collaboration
- 5. Officer safety and well being
- 6. Summary

Challenges to Community Policing in the 21st Century

- 1. Trust and perception
- 2. Diversity and cultural sensitivity
- 3. Technology and digital divide
- 4. Changing nature of crime
- 5. Mental health and substance abuse
- 6. Limited resources and budget constraints
- 7. Social media and online communities
- 8. Summary

Peel Principles of Community Policing

- 1. Community policing defined
- 2. Sir Robert Peel
- 3. The basic mission
- 4. Public approval
- 5. Limitations of force
- 6. Neutral service
- 7. Community Collaboration
- 8. Crime prevention
- 9. Use of data
- 10. Continuous learning
- 11. Officer conduct
- 12. Benefits of community policing
- 13. Challenges of community policing
- 14. Summary

Pulling Levers Strategy to Community Policing

- 1. Understanding pulling levers strategy
- 2. Identify high risk offenders or groups
- 3. Communication of consequences

- 4. Offer alternatives and support
- 5. Active law enforcement
- 6. Community engagement and support
- 7. Continuous evaluation and adjustment
- 8. Benefits of pulling levers strategy
- 9. Successful case studies
- 10. Implementation considerations
- 11. Summary

Community Support

- 1. Community engagement and outreach
- 2. Collaboration and problem solving
- 3. Transparency and accountability
- 4. Training and education
- 5. Positive media relations
- 6. Community oriented programs and services
- 7. Social media and online presence
- 8. Overall summary